MOVING PICTURE ACTORS HURT IN AUTO WRECK

Truck Carrying Twenty-Three Players Plunges Over Thirty-Five-Foot Embankment.

LOS ANGELES, May 26.-Mrs. Ira Magard Schoonmaker is seriously injured at the Good Samaritan Hospital and twenty-two other persons connected with the American Woman Film Company are hurt as the result of an automobile truck, loaded with of an automobile truck, loaded with moving picture players, plunging over an embankment at Chatsworth.

The party was returning from work on a film called "Saul of Tarsus." The truck fell thirty-five feet into the ravine. In a car following the truck were Lianne, Carrera, Anna Held's daughter, and Lucretia Del Valle, leading woman in the "Mission Play." both of whom gave first aid to their colleagues.
